GACHA DEBT: THE FULL CAMPAIGN SCRIPT

CHAPTER 1: THE $30,000 TREASURY INCIDENT

Stage 1-1: The Audit

> Location: Student Council Office

Ninette: (Slams financial binder on the desk) Ynna. Explain this line item. Immediately.

Ynna: (Playing on phone) Which one? The $4 boba tea?

Ninette: No! The THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLAR charge to "GachaCorp - Unlimited Banner Pulls"! That was the entire student council budget for the semester!

Ynna: Okay, hear me out... Angelina Ajimu had a rate-up banner! It was guaranteed SSR pity at 300 pulls!

Ninette: YOU SPENT THE SCHOOL'S TREASURY FOR A PNG OF AN ANIME GIRL?!

Edgelord69: (Leaning dramatically against the broken window frame) Peace, child of light. What is money but a temporary mortal illusion? Her rate-up... is eternal.

Ninette: SHUT UP, EDGELORD! You broke our office window last week with your plastic sword!

Stage 1-2 to 1-5: Escanooor's Ultimatum

Disciplinary Head Escanooor discovers the missing treasury and gives the Student Council a strict deadline to recover the $30,000 before liquidating the Student Council office.

CHAPTER 2: THE GRAND CAMPUS CLEANUP & THE HIDDEN FACILITY

Stage 2-1: Spores in the West Wing

> Location: Old West Wing Corridor (Covered in glowing vines and damp moss)

Ninette: (Coughs) Ugh! The humidity down here is insane! Why is the hallway completely overgrown with giant red and blue mushrooms?!

Ynna: (Pokes a mushroom with a ruler) Look, this Spun Shroom has googly eyes! It’s kind of cute—

(The Spun Shroom violently shakes and sprays a cloud of red spores everywhere).

Edgelord69: (Draws plastic katana) BREATHE IT NOT! The spores of the Reroom inflame the soul with unholy rage!

Ninette: They aren't unholy, they're just irritating my allergies! Clear a path to the stairs before we all get fungal infections!

> Enemies: 2x Spun Shroom (Earth / Plant), 1x Reroom (Fire / Mushroom)

Edgelord69: (Sheathes sword) The spores are clinging to my dark cloak. It ruins my brooding shadow aesthetic!

Ynna: At least you didn't accidentally breathe any in. I feel like I'm seeing 5-star banner pulls in the air...

Stage 2-2: Enter Purp

> Location: Basement Junction (Illuminated by glowing mushrooms and floating purple glyphs)

(A mysterious figure in a yellow-lined cape and purple robe drops down from a giant mushroom cap, holding a floating magical tome).

Mysterious Sorcerer: HALT, TRESPASSERS! Who dares disturb the sacred sanctuary of the Grand Shadow Arcane?!

Edgelord69: Gasp! That aura... that regal yet suspicious purple drip... Could you be...

Purp: I am Purp! Master of the dark arts, ruler of the basement floor, and former president of the defunct Computer Science Club!

Ninette: Wait! You're Purp?! You went missing during midterms three weeks ago! The school put up missing posters for you!

Purp: I didn't go missing! I got permabanned on my main account by GachaCorp, so I moved down here with my squad of Blue Cap Shrooms to live off grid-power and siphon free Wi-Fi from the faculty lounge!

Ynna: Honestly? I respect the dedication to the grind. But we need to get past you to reach the server room and cancel my $30,000 debt!

Purp: Ha! If you want access to the server room, you'll have to prove your resolve against my purple magic first!

> Enemies [MINI-BOSS]: 1x Purp (Dark / Sorcerer), 2x Blue Cap Shroom (Water / Plant)

Purp: Ngh... Such tactical synergy... You have bested my spellcasting...

Ynna: So... are you gonna help us hack the server or what?

Purp: (Instantly drops dramatic persona) Oh yeah, totally. I was getting tired of eating raw basement mushrooms anyway. Let's go kick GachaCorp's butt.

Stage 2-3: Cursed Clocks & Feline Feuds

> Location: The Abandoned Robotics & Occult Storage Room

Ninette: Okay, Purp is in our party now. But look at this room—it's a literal warzone between ticking clockwork gears and cursed black cats wearing tiny witch hats!

Purp: Ah, yes. The Clockwork Sentries were built by the Engineering Department to guard the server, but the Occult Society cursed them, so now they just attack anyone who hasn't paid their library fees.

Cursed Cat Mob: Meow~ (Eyes glow red as ticking clock sounds echo from its stomach).

Edgelord69: A CAT WITH A CLOCKWORK HEART?! THIS IS PEAK ANIME SYNCRETISM!

Ynna: (Tries to pet one) Aw, look at the little cursed baby—

Ninette: YNNA, IT'S WINDING UP A MELEE ATTACK! STEP BACK!

> Enemies [MINI-BOSS]: 1x Cursed Clockwork Cat (Dark / Mechanical), 4x Clockwork Sentry (Lightning / Robot)

Stage 2-4: The Overclocked Security Gate

> Location: GachaCorp Server Room Outer Vault

P.A. Automated Voice: WARNING: UNAUTHORIZED PERSONNEL DETECTED NEAR THE SERVER TERMINAL. DEPLOYING MAXIMUM SECURITY PROTOCOL.

Ninette: Great. The automated security system is locking down the door!

Purp: (Floats up on magical tome) Stand back! GachaCorp installed a high-tier Clockwork Sentry Prime to guard the vault!

> Enemies [MINI-BOSS]: 1x Clockwork Sentry Prime (Lightning), 2x Cursed Clockwork Cat

Stage 2-5: The Overclocked Core [BOSS]

> HP: 1,500,000 / 1,500,000 — [BOSS] GACHACORP MAIN SERVER TERMINAL

Purp: I'm in! Bypassing two-factor authentication... entering the Treasurer's admin panel... AND... TRANSACTION REVERSED!

Ninette: THE $30,000 DEBT IS GONE! WE ARE SAVED!

Ynna: Wait... Purp, what did you just click?

Purp: I clicked "Reverse Transaction & Convert to Account Credit."

Ynna: ...Purp... you converted the $30,000 debt into 300,000 In-Game Paid Gems on my account instead of refunding the bank...

Ninette: (Screams at the top of his lungs) YNNAAAA! PURPPP! I'M GOING TO THROW BOTH OF YOU OFF THE SCHOOL ROOF!

CHAPTER 3: THE SANCTUM OF THE HOLY LEDGER

Stage 3-1 & 3-2: The Divine Audit

> Location: The Cathedral of Saint Athanasius (School Chapel)

Purp: GachaCorp uses the 300,000 Paid Gems as an encrypted digital ledger to hide unrecorded offshore transactions. Your $30,000 accidentally intercepted a corporate laundering node.

Solari: (Adjusts divine spectacles, her voice deep and authoritative) Halt, sinners. Silence, heathen! I am Solari, High Cleric of the Holy Audit and Supreme Arbiter of Fiscal Purity!

Solari: ...Hold. This signature on the 300,000 Gem transaction node... It bears the seal of GachaCorp Executive Board. Your $30,000 was stolen by GachaCorp's CEO to fund a predatory buyout of this entire academic district. You were framed.

CHAPTER 4: CORPORATE DESOLATION

Stage 4-1 & 4-5: The Executive Floor

Director Vane: Impressive. The student council, a disgraced hacker, and a renegade cleric. Do you really

CHAPTER 5: THE PRICE OF REDEMPTION [FINAL CHAPTER]

Stage 5-1: The Descent into Abyssal Code

> Location: The Sub-Basement Quantum Core

Purp: The core is collapsing! It's deleting every student record tied to the $30,000 ledger!

Edgelord69: (Holding off swarms of security constructs, coat torn, standing firm) Keep moving! I'll hold the doorway!

Ynna: Edgelord, no!

Stage 5-5: The Heart of the System

> HP: 5,000,000 / 5,000,000 — [FINAL BOSS] SYSTEM CORE OMEGA-GACHA

Ninette: Ynna... this is it. If we initiate the override, the 300,000 Gems will be permanently erased. The $30,000 debt will be cleared... but all your game progress, your account... everything you spent years on... will be deleted forever.

Ynna: (Looks at her phone one last time. She looks at Ninette, Purp, Solari, and a bruised Edgelord who caught up).

Ynna: (Softly) It was just PNGs anyway, Ninette. You guys... are what's real.

(Ynna crushes her smartphone in her hand, plugging the master hard drive directly into the core console).

System Voice: CRITICAL OVERRIDE DETECTED. INITIATING TOTAL SYSTEM PURGE.

Epilogue

The data wiped clean. The $30,000 debt vanished from the banking network as if it had never existed. GachaCorp's regional division was put under federal investigation following the release of Solari's Holy Audit files.

> Location: Student Council Office (Rebuilt, bright, quiet)

Ninette: (Sitting at desk filing clean reports, scholarship reinstated) ...You know, the new semester budget came in today.

Ynna: (Sipping a juice box, looking out the window) Oh yeah? How much?

Ninette: (Smiles faintly, sliding a clean folder over) Just enough. And not a single cent for digital pulls.

Solari: (Pokes head through door, adjusting mustache with a small smile) The ledger is balanced. Peace be upon this office.
